Instructions

Who is eligible?

Total household income was not more than $12,546 and:

- Age 65 or older by December 31, 2021, or
- Totally disabled and age 18 or older by December 31, 2021.

Household income includes your income and your spouse's income, if living together, and monetary contributions received from other persons living with you. If you and your spouse are not living together, each may file a separate claim.

Line 1: Wages, salaries, unemployment compensation, tips, etc. - Enter the total wages, salaries, unemployment compensation, tips, bonuses, and commissions received.

Line 2: In-kind assistance - Enter any portion of your housing expenses, including utilities, that were paid for you. Do not include Federal Energy Assistance.

Line 3: Title 19 benefits - Enter your Title 19 benefits received for housing expenses. Do not include medical benefits.

Line 4: Social Security income - Enter the total Social Security benefits received, even if not reportable for income tax purposes. Include any Medicare premiums withheld.

Line 5: Disability income - Enter the total received for disability or injury compensation, even if not reportable for income tax purposes.

Line 6: All pensions and annuities - Enter the total received from pensions and annuities. Include retirement pay for military service, even if not reportable for income tax purposes.

Line 7: Interest and dividend income - Enter taxable interest income, plus all interest income from federal, state, and municipal securities. Enter taxable dividends and distributions received. Include cash dividends and dividends paid in the form of merchandise or other property. Report at fair market value.

Line 8: Profit from business and/or farming and capital gain - Enter profit from business and/or farming, and any gain received from the sale or exchange of capital assets. Capital losses are limited to the same amount that you are allowed to report for income tax purposes. Any loss must be offset against gain, and a net loss must be reported as zero.

Line 9: Money received from others living with you - Enter money received from others living with you. Do not include goods and services received.

Line 10: Other income - Enter total income received from the following sources:

- Child support and alimony payments.
- Welfare payments. Include Family Investment Program (FIP), children's Supplemental Security Income (SSI), and all other welfare program cash payments. Do not include foster grandparents' stipends or non-cash government assistance (ex: food, clothing, food stamps, medical supplies, etc.).
- Insurance income not reported elsewhere.
- Gambling, and all other income, not reported elsewhere.

Line 12: Medical and care expenses - Enter all medical and necessary care expenses paid during the year which were related to your disability. These are the same as you are allowed to deduct for federal income tax. Do not enter an amount on line 12 unless you are totally disabled and incurred medical or care expenses attributable to your disability.

Line 13: Total household income - Subtract line 12 from line 11. If more than $12,546, no credit is allowed.
